SPRING THING 2004

DATE: Saturday April 17, 2004

TIME: 1:00 PM - 'til the evening gator commute  PLACE: Soggy Acres (MJ Soileau's place)
100 Tuskawilla Rd. Winter Springs, FL 32708  (407) 327-7346 (if lost) Or (407) 443-3808

WHO IS INVITED:
Office of Research & School of Optics:CREOL & FPCE faculty, staff & students + friends and families; SPIE staff, Affiliates, Partners and Friends, Plus any high level UCF administrator wanting to feast on fine food and mingle with the masses

MENU:
Grain products (solid and liquidl) and Cajun Cuisine cooked in grand style by Cajun Master Chefs: Gator, Pig, Chicken (tastes just like gator), miscellaneous good (and some healthy) stuff.

ACTIVITIES:
Eating, drinking and being merry! Live Music by the internationally acclaimed Quantum Beats! Volleyball, basketball, croquet, tug -o'war, Gator stalking on Lake Jesup, fishing (bring your own gear), pie eating contest, etc...

DRINKS, DOOR PRIZES & GAMES: Provided & arranged for by CREOL CAOS students

COST:
Just an "RSVP" phone call or email to the Receptionist, School of Optics (407) 823-6800. (email: creol@mail.ucf.edu) When you RSVP you get DOOR PRIZE TICKETS! PLEASE STOP BY THE CREOL RECEPTION DESK TO PICK UP YOUR TICKETS, OR, when you call to RSVP ask that your tickets held for pickup at the party. Ask for 1 ticket per person (The cooks need a headcount!)

WHAT TO BRING:
Lawn chairs, bug spray, the right attitude

---

[Map of Tuskawilla Rd. and surrounding areas]